DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 1-39 and 46-51 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

Figure 9C of the present application shows a combiner (944) coupled to a first pump source (942a) and a second pump source (942b). The output of the device is sent to a Raman Oscillator. The structure of the Raman Oscillator is disclosed by figures 8A to 8D.

As a result, the present application fails to provide support for the claimed gain fiber comprising a first waveguide structure.

Figures 8A to 8D disclose what is identified as either a Raman Oscillator or Raman Wavelength shifter.

It is not clear in these figures as to what defines the intermediate waveguide structure coupled to a second waveguide structure capable of wavelength shifting at least one wavelength of a first optical signal to an intermediate wavelength.

Art Unit: 3663

It is also noted that there is no sole figure in the specification that shows the complete structure supporting either independent claim 1 or 29.

An exact description of the combination of figures that supports the claimed subject matter along with a clear identification of structure that supports each individual claimed element is proper in order to make a valid comparison with the prior art.

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-39 and 46-51 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The reference cited expands on the concepts of previously recited art.
